PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley

PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley was organized in January of 1993 to promote the 1993 March on Washington. We distributed information on the March and sponsored busses to the March from the Lehigh Valley. When people returned from the March, filled with excitement and enthusiasm, we all decided the Lehigh Valley needs a special event for our Gay and Lesbian community.....and so the PRIDE Festival was born!

Our official name is: PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley: Lesbians, Gays and Bisexuals TOGETHER, Inc. PRIDE is a 501-C3, non- profit organization, incorporated in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. PRIDE is comprised of a general membership and an executive board of 7 people. General membership meetings are held the first Wednesday of each month at 7:00pm at Grace Covenant Church, 10th and Chew Streets in Allentown. Membership is open to anyone and there are no membership dues. PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley is a member of "The International Association of Pride Festival Organizers."

Here is a portion of PRIDE's Mission Statement: The purpose of PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley shall be the advancement of gay, lesbian and bisexual rights and pride through community outreach. The purpose is to be achieved through an annual Pride Festival and other events and activities.

If you would like more information on PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley simply contact any PRIDE member or attend any of our general membership meetings or call the PRIDE InfoLine at (610) 770-6200.

PRIDE GUIDE is published by PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley and makes no indication of the sexual orientation of persons, groups and organizations mentioned in name or shown in photographs throughout its articles, advertisements and listings.

Celebrate with PRIDE!

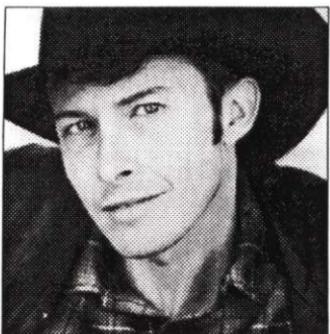

Welcome to the 3rd annual Lehigh Valley Pride Festival! Let's make today a day to remember for the gay and lesbian community here in the Greater Lehigh Valley. Last year, festival attendance doubled, a sure sign that our community is ready to celebrate our culture and diversity with Pride. The major concern at the first Pride Festival here at Cedar Beach in 1994 was that the local gay and lesbian community would not come out to a festival in the middle of a city park. A thousand people showed up to prove the skeptics wrong! The Lehigh Valley has proven that we don't have to rely on other cities of celebrate gay and lesbian pride.

For our third festival we have an exciting line-up of talent. Our headline act, Doug Stevens & the Outband will get you on your feet and ready to dance. The Outband is a nationally known, openly gay group that is performing at gay pride celebration in Philadelphia and New York this year, so we are very excited to have them here at our festival. As always, PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley has made a commitment to local talent. This year you get to enjoy several gay and lesbian artists, some you'll be very familiar with, others you'll have the pleasure of hearing for the first time.

While you're enjoying today's festival, take the time to browse through the PRIDE GUIDE and take note of the many advertisers who support PRIDE Festival '96, and the gay and lesbian community in general. In return, we hope you will support those businesses and organizations in every way that you can.

The Executive Board of PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley wants to thank everyone who has worked to make Pride Festival '96 a success, but most of all, we want to thank the gay and lesbian community for "coming out" to enjoy the day. Celebrate with PRIDE!

Doug Stevens & the Outband

Doug Stevens & the Outband is a nationally known, openly gay, country and western band. Committed to singing songs about the gay and lesbian experience, the Outband has been thrilling audiences around the world for over four years. Combining superb musicianship with dynamic vocal arrangements, the audience will find it hard not to jump up, grab a partner, and two-step the afternoon away. Millions of fans have seen and heard the Outband on TV, radio, and in national publications. Today PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley has the great honor to present their foot-tapping tunes on our main stage!

Elaine Paxson

Billed as the "Woman of a Thousand Voices", Elaine has delighted audiences in New York, Philadelphia, New Hope, and right here in the Lehigh Valley. Her dynamic song stylings are sure to capture your heart. This is one performance you won't want to miss. PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley is excited to present Elaine Paxson in her first Pride Festival appearance!

Tinsel Garland

Fasten your seatbelts and prepare to enjoy the ride as Tinsel Garland takes the microphone as one of your Emcees for Pride Festival '96. More than just a pretty face in a dress, Tinsel Garland has become one of the top female impersonators/comedians on the East Coast. Today, PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley has the honor of having Tinsel on the main stage to help make Pride Festival '96 a day to remember!

Muse

Muse is a contemporary folk duo that has performed on local stages at Musikfest and Mayfair, to name just a few. This dynamic partnership thrives on the ideals brought to us by such artists as Joan Baez, James Taylor, Maya Angelou, and Khalil Gibran. Their original songs, woven with talented vocal harmonizations and acoustic guitar embellishments gives their music a life of its own. PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley is proud to welcome Muse for their first performance at the Lehigh Valley Pride Festival

Don Horton

Don's entertaining cabaret act is well known to Lehigh Valley audiences. He is a veteran of more than 200 theatrical productions and has traveled with companies to Pittsburgh, Boston, New York, and San Francisco. If you've never seen Don perform before, sit back and enjoy the show! PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley is pleased to welcome Don Horton to Pride Festival '96.

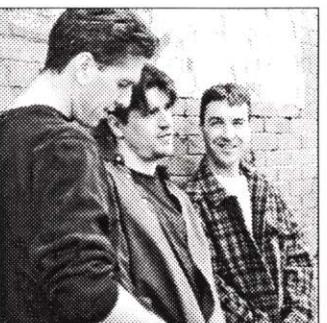

Dame Betty

Dame Betty (a.k.a. Brian Marks) is well known throughout the Lehigh Valley for his tireless work in the fight against AIDS. This year he brings his hilarious and outrageous persona to the main stage as one of the Emcees for Pride Festival '96. PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley takes it hat off in salute to the Dame!

Bootlickers

This trio of gay men came together at a jam session on New Year's Day 1995. Since then their folk/rock sound with a pop sensibility has captured the attention of Philadelphia audiences at Queerstock '95, and the Diversity of Pride Festival, among many other local cabarets. Their original gay-themed music speaks to the human condition, both with humorous and serious intent. With excitement, PRIDE of the Lehigh Valley welcomes the Bootlickers for their first appearance at our Pride Festival.
